

What is a Food Chain?

- *All living things need energy to stay alive. This energy comes from the sun.
- *Plants make their food from energy from the sun.
- *Animals get their energy from the food they eat. Animals depend on other living things for food. Some animals eat plants while others eat other animals.
- *This passing of energy from the sun to plants to animals to other animals is called a FOOD CHAIN.

