

April showers bring May flowers.

This saying means something unpleasant can cause something good to happen.

Better safe than sorry.

This saying means it is better not to take risks when there is a chance it is not safe.

Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

This saying means to treat people how you want to be treated.

A dog is man's best friend.

This saying means that dogs are loyal and loving.

The early bird gets the worm.

This saying means you can get ahead if you get going and really work for what you want.

Look before you leap.

This saying means that you should be careful and think before you rush into doing something.

It's raining cats and dogs.

This saying means that it is raining very, very hard.

Practice makes perfect.

This saying means when you do something over and over you become very good at it.

First Book of Sayings

Book of Sayings

The early bird gets the worm.