

Check-Up for Tables

*Run off Fill in the Temperature Table. Have your child complete the Temperature Table. Ask your child how does the table work? Could the table be set up in another way?

0 My child understands how to read and use a table.

*Have your child find two tables that are used in the “real” world.

0 My child understands how to use tables and how they are used in the real world.