

Check-Up for Money

*Run off Counting Pennies, Nickels, and Dimes. Ask your child to count so many pennies, then nickels, and then dimes.

0 My child understands how to and can count pennies, nickels, and dimes.

*Run off Counting Quarters and Counting Half Dollars. Ask your child to count so many quarters and so many half dollars.

0 My child understands how to and can count quarters and half dollars.

*Run off the game Counting Coins. Play the game with your child asking them to count many different combinations of coins.

0 My child understands how to and can count combinations of coins accurately.

*Run off the game, How Much Money? Play the game with your child asking them to count and then write the amount of money.

0 My child can count the money and can write the amount of money accurately.

*Play the game Store with your child. Ask them to give you change after you tell them how much you purchased.

0 My child can make change accurately.

*Play the game Rounding Money to the Nearest Dollar.

0 My child understands and can round money to the nearest dollar.